

Museo delle Terre Nuove

The Museo delle Terre Nuove is located in a historical building, the Palazzo d'Arnolfo, in the heart of San Giovanni Valdarno.

In thirteen thematic rooms, the museum illustrates the history of the creation of new settlements, a trend that marked a large part of medieval Europe. It also hosts regular temporary exhibitions.

WHERE

The museum is located in the centre of San Giovanni Valdarno in Piazza Cavour 1, just a few steps from the railway station, and is therefore easily accessible both by public transport and by private car, which can be left in one of the adjacent car parks just a few minutes' walk away.

USEFUL INFORMATION

Before entering the museum, you will be asked to leave backpacks, bulky bags and umbrellas at the free cloakroom.

Everyone is welcome in the museum. If you need to, you can use the lift and the accessible toilets. There are additional multi-sensory stations along the way to promote inclusive use, and QR codes giving access to LIS audio and video content. At the ticket office it is also possible to request the use of tablets with which to explore the contents of the museum further.
